THE TALK OF THE CAMPUS

76th Year Opens

AS EXPRESSED by President Calvert N. Ellis, "the skies brightened during the summer" and Juniata opened its 76th college year with a better enrollment "than we thought possible in the spring."

When the President formally opened the college at convocation in Oller Hall on Thursday morning, Sept. 20, there were approximately 550 in attendance—a drop of some ten per cent as expected. About 150 of these were freshmen who came to the campus for the regular orientation program which began Monday, Sept. 17.

Earlier in the spring, it had appeared that enrollment figures might sag below 500. However, the upper-class registration remained "reasonably unchanged" during the summer in spite of occasional withdrawals for the draft or volunteer duty.

Faculty Conference

IMPLICATIONS of teaching in a Christian College was the theme of the college-opening conference for faculty Sept. 14-16. One of the highlights was an address by President Paul J. Braisted of the Edward W. Hazen Foundation on "Religion in Higher Education."

Three members of the faculty participated in a panel discussion on "Religious Perspectives in the Academic Program." They were: Dr. George B. Clemens—The Humanities; Dr. T. F. Henry—The Social Studies; Dr. Eva Hartzler — The Natural Sciences.

In addition, Dean J. Melvin Rhodes and Prof. G. Wayne Glick presented papers on specific areas of religion in the college program. Thumbnail reviews of recent literature on religion and higher education were offered by Prof. Margaret F. McCrimmon, Dr. Edgar S. Kira-cofe, and Phillip E. Bedient.

120 For Summer

SUMMER TERM opened June 18 with 120 students, according to a registration summary. The enrollment included 87 men and 33 women.

Although lower than enrollments since the end of World War II, the registration was "slightly higher" than the anticipated 110. Curiously enough, the Summer term closed with 120 students—the first time in memory that there wasn't an enrollment drop during the second period.

Entertainment

TWO CONCERT programs of music were the entertainment highlights for the annual Alumni Vacation week at the College, Aug. 5-10.

Hobart Mitchell, distinguished baritone, presented a program of "poetry in song" on Wednesday, Aug. 8. The Lawson twins, 12-year-old Faith and Hope from Williamsport, Pa., gave a well-received duo-piano performance in Oller Hall on Thursday, Aug. 9. The twins are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lawson '27.

Process Form 109

SELECTIVE SERVICE created some additional worries for the office of the registrar by requiring the processing of SSS Form 109 during the early summer. The college completed and mailed the official document to certify class standing for more than 160 of its men students.

As a result, however, many of the draft-eligible men were classified 2-A (S)—the official deferment classification for college undergrads. But some of the lads whose class standing was low-quarter and who failed to pass the College Qualification Test were classified 1-A.

Meanwhile, plans have been announced for the second nation-wide series of Selective Service College Qualification Tests to provide local boards with evidence of the aptitude of registrants for college work for guidance in deferment. Tests are scheduled Dec. 13, 1951, and April 24, 1952.

Annual Pilgrimage

A GROUP of old friends, relatives and associates joined on Aug. 25 in paying their respects to the memory of Pennsylvania's former governor and distinguished president of Juniata College, Dr. Martin Grove Brumbaugh. The occasion was the annual pilgrimage to the grave in Valley View cemetery near Marklesburg.

The memorial address was presented by Col. Henry W. Shoemaker, state archivist, whose subject was "Martin Brumbaugh, naturalist."

Two Appointments

MISS ANNA S. BENJAMIN, Philadelphia, and Dr. David A. Warriner, Jr., New Orleans, La., are the new appointments to the faculty at the College for the year beginning Sept. 17, President Calvert N. Ellis has announced.

Miss Benjamin, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, was named instructor in classical languages. She will teach courses in Latin and Greek. Dr. Warriner was appointed assistant professor of psychology.

Because of her unusual linguistic ability, Miss Benjamin was awarded a Thomas Day Seymour fellowship in Greek literature and history to study at the American School of Classical Studies in Athens, Greece, in 1948. She remained another year when she was selected for a Fulbright grant. Miss Benjamin received her master of arts degree from Pennsylvania in 1947.

Dr. Warriner received a bachelor of science degree with honors in chemistry from Tulane University in 1942. Changing his major field to psychology, Dr. Warriner completed graduate study at Cornell University and was awarded his Ph.D. degree in educational psychology last June.

Dr. Warriner has been a graduate assistant at Harvard, Cornell and the University of Colorado. He was assistant professor of chemistry at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Lafayette, La., in 1948.

Both Miss Benjamin and Dr. Warriner are members of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's highest academic honor society.

Rowland Returns

Prof. Charles L. Rowland, who retired in June as professor of music after 31 years of service, was requested to return to the faculty for one year beginning in September.

The board of trustees asked Professor Emeritus Rowland to continue instruction in voice and conducting for the coming college year. He relinquished his position as director of the a cappella choir with his retirement.

MISS JANE E. McCORMICK

Acting Dean Named

MISS JANE E. McCORMICK, Pottstown, Pa., was named acting dean of women at Juniata College for the coming college year, President Calvert N. Ellis announced.

A graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, she joined the faculty at Juniata in September 1949 as instructor in physical education. She will retain that position in addition to her duties as acting dean.

Miss McCormick will replace Dean Edith L. Spencer who has been given a one-year leave of absence by the board of trustees.

The acting dean is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George A. McCormick of Pottstown, Pa. She was graduated from Beaver High School and received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Penn State in 1949.

Alcohol School Held

A five-day program was set up for the seventh annual Pennsylvania School of Alcohol Studies on the campus July 16-20.

Lectures and workshops dominated the school which was sponsored by various church groups, the WCTU and the Temperance League, headed by Dr. George F. Dunkelberger, Selinsgrove, director.

17 Rate Dean's List

SEVENTEEN students — 10 men and 7 women—were named to the Dean's List of Distinguished Students for the Spring term at Juniata College.

Nine of the 17 acquired a "straight A" for a 3.00 quality point average for the term. Students were required to have at least a 2.75 average.

Heading the list of "straight A" students were Gerald F. Hartzel, Souderton, and N. Douglas Martin, Colver. Both were named for the fifth time to the honor roll. Hartzel was graduated in June in economics and business administration and Martin was a junior pre-medical student.

The complete list announced by Dr. Morley Mays, dean of the college, follows:

Marjorie Alleman, 4015 Blakiston St., Philadelphia; Sylvia A. Barnes, 311 Race St., W. Pittston, Pa.; George Blechschmidt, Grove St., Cressona; J. Richard Creps, Williamsburg, Pa.; James A. Giordano, 42 S. Main St., Spring City, Pa.; Gerald F. Hartzel, 152 Main St., Souderton, Pa.

Lorena A. Hebrank, 1804 Harrison Ave., Jeannette, Pa.; Naomi Kulp, Garkida, Nigeria, W. Africa; N. Douglas Martin, 110 First St., Colver, Pa.; Lois E. Miller, 10 Manor Dr., Tuckahoe, N. Y.; Howard C. Montgomery, Orbisonia, Pa.; Wilfred G. Norris, 323 Fairview Ave., Ambler, Pa.

Extension School

A two-week Summer Extension school for Bethany Biblical Seminary, Chicago, was held at Juniata College July 30-August 11. Ministers, church school teachers and district workers of the Church of the Brethren attended.

Summer Commencement

PRESIDENT Calvert N. Ellis called on the August graduating class "to make a return to society for the opportunities and privileges society has offered" when he conferred degrees on 18 men and women at the College's 26th Summer Commencement, Aug. 24.

The Friday night exercises, held at a dinner for graduates in Oneida Hall, replaced the traditional morning ceremony for Commencement. This formally closed the Summer term.

Eleven bachelor of science and seven bachelor of arts degrees were awarded to increase the total number of graduates to 120 in three Commencements this year at Juniata. There were 11 men and seven women in the Summer class.

Only one student was graduated with honors. She was middle-aged Mrs. Grace Alice Veach of Altoona, an elementary education teacher with a daughter approaching college age, who was graduated cum laude.

Prior to conferring degrees, President Ellis reminded the candidates what society has a right to expect of a college graduate. He listed three major items: 1 — competence in at least one area of knowledge; 2—general culture; 3—devotion to the ideal of humanity. He emphasized the third point as "service to God and humankind."

Vets Total 583

A TOTAL of 583 veterans of World War II have studied at Juniata College under the G.I. Bill which has provided educational benefits since 1945.

At the cut-off date on July 25, 41 veterans were still enrolled for Summer term. Only a few of these came in for the second half of the term to beat the July 25 deadline.

Not all of the veterans have been in Juniata at the same time, according to a summary released by the office of the registrar. The peak enrollment of students under the G.I. Bill was 262 in 1947.

An estimated 50 vets are continuing their program of study at Juniata for the 1951-52 term. Under Veterans Administration regulations, students may complete their education if enrolled before the deadline date or if they were on Summer vacation after attending Spring term.

No Record Albums

The supply of record albums was exhausted last June; hence the alumni office is unable to accept orders which continue to be placed. It is doubtful if another album will be produced before 1952-53.

Homecoming Date

Susquehanna will be the Homecoming Day opponent for the Tribe on its 1951 football card. The traditional contest is set for Nov. 3.

Expanding Economics

THE CURRICULUM committee of Juniata College has approved three new courses in the department of economics and business administration to provide "better balance and a broader base" in the department.

The new courses are: Business Cycles, International Trade and Finance, and Tax Accounting, according to Dr. Morley Mays, chairman of the curriculum committee. Approval of the courses had been recommended by Dr. S. Lees Booth, head of the department.

Dr. Booth said that the addition of these courses will "help to provide a broader base for students preparing for careers in economics or various phases of business administration."

The department now will offer opportunity for study in applied economics—actuarial work, merchandising, business administration in technical industries and commerce or finance—in addition to the better known professions of accountant, statistician, business analyst and economist.

International Trade and Finance is now offered in the Fall term. The course includes a discussion of such current questions as: exchange control, exchange depreciation, international capital movements, inter-governmental lending, tariffs, trade restrictions, cartels, state trading, customs, unions and international agencies for economic cooperation.

Assistant to Dean

WILLIAM McK. WRIGHT '50 of Milton, has been appointed assistant to the dean of students at the college for the current year. Wright, who received a master of arts degree in student personnel administration from Teachers College, Columbia University, last June, is serving as assistant to Dean J. Melvin Rhodes.

During the Fall term, Wright will aid in counseling freshmen and serve as resident adviser in the Lodge, residence for underclassmen.

Alumni Achievement

DR. JOHN F. MENTZER S80
Far From Retired

AMONG the most highly respected citizens of Ephrata and Northern Lancaster county is Dr. John F. Mentzer, leader and promoter of all things good in fraternal, community and church circles. Although in his 90th year, he has by no means retired from any field of useful service.

Dr. Mentzer was graduated from Jefferson Medical School in 1882. In that day there was bitter feeling between Homeopathic and Alopatic schools of medicine. Showing a willingness to give credit to all that is good, he attended lectures at Hahnemann Homeopathic School of Medicine. Then he opened his office in Ephrata — and is still carrying on an active practice.

In his early days of practice there were no hospitals, laboratories, or long lists of specialists to consult in difficult cases. The local physician with the aid of his colleague did all that was done in the practice of medicine and surgery. The closest hospital was in Philadelphia 65 miles away.

As modern medicine came into its own, Dr. Mentzer advanced with the profession. In recent years he has been most active in helping to establish the Ephrata Community Hospital. On the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone, he was chosen by his fellow practitioners as Dean of the Physicians of the Community.

In Ephrata Dr. Mentzer has served at various times as postmaster, member of borough council, board of health, school director and chief burgess. In 1916 he was elected treasurer of Lancaster County. Twice he was a delegate to the Republican National convention.

Dr. Mentzer is perhaps best known for his efforts to preserve the Ephrata Cloisters. He was presented a citation by the American Scenic and Preservation Society for this project. He has been a leading layman in the Bethany Evangelical and Reformed Church.

When Dr. Mentzer first came to Juniata in 1878, he was accompanied by his sister, Sallie, and Miss Annie Knickmacher. The latter became the wife of Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh, one of Dr. Mentzer's close friends. Juniata, a very young institution at the time, had just moved into Founders' Hall.

Throughout the years, Dr. Mentzer has been a loyal member of the Juniata alumni. He has appeared for chapel programs and special ceremonies to inspire students and faculty with his witty and well-pointed addresses.

The World and Apple Pie

EDITOR'S NOTE: In scanning various newspapers of the area, we often see good articles. This editorial, in our opinion, was worth re-printing not only because it is good but also because it is written by Harry E. Maclay '48, editor of three weekly papers in Blair county. It is from the Hollidaysburg Register and is reprinted with permission of Editor Maclay.

THE WORLD may or may not be approaching its darkest hour. We'll leave that for the seers to hash out. But it is most assuredly well into the penumbra. As grandma would say, "Things are not in apple-pie order."

We all know that grandma was pretty often right. Her philosophy was pretty homespun but it seldom was without its good points. She minded her own business and expressed herself plainly, though not always outside her family circle.

And she could bake apple pie.

Some of her offspring in government and business are not quite the hand at things that grandma was, however. They have bungled simple jobs through carelessness or ignorance of their importance. And there has been bungling right down the line wherever attempt is made to build on the foundation they muffed.

Other of her offspring have become crazed with the power she so emphatically deplored. They have become big apples. They want to be the whole pie. But in becoming big apples they have had to slice themselves too thinly to be effective. They are likely to shrivel when the oven door opens.

Because there are so many big apples who insist on being in the pie, the other lesser apples beneath them are likely to boil over when the lid is clamped on and the door closed. This has been the case in the past and the practice is likely one that can be relied on. How soon the pie boils over depends entirely on the heat. And someone is bound to get burned when the oven door opens.

Stated plainly, ours is a frustrated, empty and confused day, filled with amazing contradictions and paradoxes.

It is a world that has become a neighborhood without becoming a brotherhood; a world separated by an impenetrable Iron Curtain, full of insecurity and caught in the grip of great forces that seem too big for the average man. It is a cold, impersonal, complex world that has knowledge but not wisdom, houses but not homes, speed but not direction, a deep yearning for spiritual reality but no abiding faith in God.

We have become a people with morale without morals, thanks without thanksgiving, sight without vision, wealth without riches.

Something's wrong with the pie. Maybe all it needs is more crust. Too bad grandma isn't around anymore to show us how it should be made.

INNISFREE, summer home of the Robert Patricks, has generous garden, which Bob plows (left) with garden tractor, and spacious living room (above), for relaxing in after hard labors. At bottom of the page is an exterior view, well illustrating why the Patricks are proud of their poetically named summer home. The Tussey Mountain counterpart of Yeats' Innisfree is located not far from Huntingdon in the Diamond Valley area near the cabin of Dr. and Mrs. William B. West.

Patrick's 'Rough It'

ON THE walls of a log cabin not too far from Huntingdon are these lines by the poet Yeats:

*"I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there of clay and wattles made;
Nine bean-rows will I have there,
a hive for the honey-bee,
And live along in the bee-loud glade."*

Yeats' quatrain aptly describes this summer home of Dr. Robert B. Patrick, associate professor of education at the Pennsylvania State College. And in case you have forgotten — president of the Juniata College Alumni Association for 1951-52.

Wisely enough, Bob has named his cabin "Innisfree." Somewhat more substantial than the Innisfree of Yeats, the Tussey Mountain counterpart is expertly designed, skillfully constructed and comfortably live-in cabin which the Patricks have been enjoying for a decade except for the war years.

At least, it's full-time enjoyment in the Summer and on weekends from Thanksgiving to Easter.

The nine (or maybe a few more) bean rows are there too, along with fruit trees, strawberry beds, and a liberal sprinkling of ornamental trees. Agricultural endeavors keep Bob busy, down to the single honey bee which managed to survive a tough winter last year.

The cabin is constructed almost entirely of materials which came from the nearby woods, including the hardwood floors, bunk beds, doors and several chests of drawers.

Friends of Bob from Huntingdon and State College visit the six-acre area where the Patricks "rough it" each summer. But if you never have the chance to visit Innisfree, the scenes on this page (borrowed from The College, a publication of The Pennsylvania State College) may show why Bob and his wife are proud of their poetically named home.

Alumni Achievement

WILLIAM E. GERMANN '49, of Huntingdon, has been named manager of Radio Station WHUN in Huntingdon. Bill, who also serves as trainer for Juniata's athletic teams, started as an announcer with WHUN in 1948. He took on duties as sports director in April 1949.

Early this year he began working in close contact with the administrative offices of the radio station in order to be fully acquainted with the duties of station manager.

Germann, a native of Alexandria, was graduated from Huntingdon High School in 1938. He worked in Harrisburg, Cumberland and Baltimore, Md., and Panama City, Fla., following graduation. Then he enlisted in the Seabees of the U. S. Navy in 1943. He served 18 months in the Pacific Theater.

The new radio station manager entered Juniata in 1946 after his discharge from the Navy. He was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in sociology in June, 1949.

Germann is married to the former Suana Havens of Huntingdon. They have one son, George Havens Germann.

Popular Juvenile

A new edition of a popular juvenile "The Beloved Son" has been issued by Blanche Shoemaker Wagstaff (Mrs. Donald Carr) M.A. '35. The book is commended for its "new method of portraying Jesus and his teachings."

Correction In Report

In the Summer issue of the Alumni Bulletin, the fund report carried the name of Joseph V. Kline as a contributor in the class of 1931 instead of the class of 1913. The editors regret this error.

New 'Dean' Arrives

In the residence of the College dean, two and one-half year old Beth Mays now has a baby brother, Randall, who was born in the J. C. Blair Memorial Hospital, Huntingdon, on April 30, 1951. He was 9 pounds, 10 ounces, at birth. The residence of Dr. and Mrs. (Lucinda Miller '33) Morley Mays is 301 Eighteenth St., Huntingdon, Pa.

NEW HYMNALS for the Church of the Brethren were dedicated throughout the nation this summer. The Rev. John C. Middlekauff '33, (left) pastor of the Stone Church in Huntingdon, and Dr. Morley Mays '32, dean of the college, are shown examining some of the books. Dr. Mays served on the selection committee and did much of the work on the new hymnal.

For Librarians

A PHOTOGRAPHIC memorial will be hung on the walls of the library, presenting the picture, name, period of service of each of the librarians of Juniata College from 1887 to date.

These names include Mrs. F. F. Holsopple beginning 1887; Prof. Joseph E. Saylor; Sarah Bogle; Mary Wilde; Ella Sheely, and others, with Miss Evans beginning 1918 and rounding out the longest period of service, approximately 30 years, in 1952.

The memorial will be in the nature of a beautiful, well-constructed photographic panel made possible through the generosity of Capt. Will Judy '11, president of Friends of the Library.

The Friends of the Library annual 'survey letter' will be mailed soon. It will give an opportunity for Juniatians and others to donate to the library valuable books, pictures, statuettes, objects d'art, which in turn can be added to the library or disposed of at auction with proceeds to the library fund.

The Friends of the Library is an informal organization, without dues. If you would like to have your name placed on the mailing list as evidence of your interest in Juniata's library, send a note to Miss Lillian M. Evans.

Among recent gifts to the library is a set of 88 books of the series GREAT ARTISTS. These increase greatly the already excellent collection of art books now available.

The large crowd present at the annual June tea of Friends of the Library, when Capt. Judy spoke on his visit to Spain, is indicative of the activity and progressiveness of this part of the college's life. The desirability of increasing building space or perhaps adding an entirely new structure to the present building of simple, but pleasing architecture, is being considered.

Florida Dinner Set

The dinner for the Florida alumni association has been set for Monday, Feb. 4, 1952. Check alumni office for further details.

JUNIATA'S MEMORIAL PHYSICAL EDUCATION BUILDING . An October View, 1951

Living Memorial

JUNIATA'S $300,000 physical education building — not completely paid for — will be dedicated as a "living memorial" to the men and women of the college who served in World War II at formal ceremonies Homecoming Day, Saturday, Nov. 3.

The tremendous structure — 188 x 155 feet — is now in the "finishing up" stage. The contractor had hoped to turn over the building before the opening of college, Sept. 29, but it was not completed.

However, the men's department of physical education and the varsity football team did move into the building in late September.

The new gymnasium is the second major objective in the college's construction program. Ground was broken in June, 1950. By the time college opened in September, the memorial building made an impressive appearance to newcomers on the campus.

The main gym floor, now marked for basketball, measures 91 x 110 feet with a playing floor 50 x 90 feet with 10 feet at each end. When the varsity court is not in use, two practice courts may be used on the same area.

On the mezzanine levels are two additional floors which are being used for physical education classes for men. This area will provide additional space for movable bleachers.

An indoor track has been marked off on this level.

Underneath the mezzanine in the front of the building are two classrooms and exercise rooms and a locker room for visiting teams. The varsity locker room, general locker room, training room, supply and equipment rooms are located under the mezzanine at the rear of the building.

The main entrance lobby will be a memorial specifically to Lt. Chalender Lee Leshner who was lost in action over Holland in 1943. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chalender H. Leshner, Huntingdon, contributed funds to provide the memorial lobby.

Offices of the director of physical education and coaches are located off the main lobby.

FINISH THE JOB

THAT'S the challenge that alumni directors and college trustees have issued in order to raise the money still needed for the Memorial Physical Education building. (The figure is $75,000)

As you can see by the photos on this page, Juniata has taken a major stride in acquiring an adequate and up-to-date physical education plant. And if you are anxious to see for yourself, you will have the opportunity

HOMECOMING DAY

Saturday, November 3

Come to the campus for the dedication of the newest building — a living memorial to the men and women of Juniata who served in World War II.

DEDICATION AT 11:30 A.M.

Smaltz Says:

"IT'S PRETTY much the same story for us at Juniata," wrote Coach Bill Smaltz in a September edition of Philadelphia's Sunday Bulletin. "We're going to have another 'building year' and it could be better than last year—or it could be worse."

Big Bill has admitted that Juniata's plight is no different from most other small colleges in our class. He says: "We have things shaping up by the end of one season and then look around the next fall to find half of the boys gone."

At least 14 of the Tribe's 29 lettermen were gone when the 29th season got under way; seven by graduation, three to the Air Force and four by withdrawal.

Among those missing was Coy Hicks, a terrific guard who was key man on offense and defense. Also gone were two top ground gainers, Phil Chabody and Joe Dobal; and two punters, Red Orler and Mike Mervis.

What was left? Well, 15 lettermen returned — and only Joe Thomasberger was a senior. The others were juniors and sophomores. And along came a pretty fair, but small group of freshmen.

When Westminster came to College Hill on September 29 (after deadline for the Alumni Bulletin), Coach Smaltz was able to field an offensive team of nine lettermen and one sophomore holdover. Heading the offensive unit was "Lundy" Loschiavo, 150-pound tackle from Ambridge who paced the Indians in total offense last season as a sophomore. His backfield mates were Dick Young, three-time letterman from Aliquippa, at quarter; Ed Gould, a J-winner from Freedom, at wing-back; and Tom McNeal, returning sophomore reserve from Mifflin, at fullback.

Six of the regular linemen were lettermen: Dave LeFevre, Hanover, center; Bob Muchoney, Greensburg, and Bill Waryck, Aliquippa, guards; Joe Thomasberger, Johnstown, and Burt Hackett, Lampeter, Pa., tackles; and Bob Wagoner, Johnstown, right end.

At least six other lettermen will see heavy action. They are Half-backs Don Patricelli, Ambridge, and Fred Hamor, Harrisburg; Center Ron Clapper, Altoona, Tackle Chuck Knox, Sewickley; and Ends Harry Martin, Baldwin, N. Y. and Tony Segalavich, McKees Rocks.

Most promising freshman candidate was Earl Edwards, 200-pound guard or tackle from Ambridge. Other first-year men likely to get into the lineup are Backs Clerf Grove, Huntingdon, Paul Hepak, Ambridge, Ken Mummah, Mifflintown, and Fran Wampler, Pottstown; Guards Al Kuhni, Ambridge and Myron Sevick, McKees Rocks; Tackles Pete Starzan, Berwick and Joe Veto, McKees Rocks; Ends Ray Clemens, Newton Hamilton, Paul Kruzeloock, Fair Oaks, and Jack Sweitzer, Ambridge.

Football Aides

TWO top-ranking former athletes of Huntingdon are aiding Coach Bill Smaltz as assistant football coaches this season.

Dr. T. Arnold Greene, former Pitt gridiron great, again is assisting with football in addition to his duties as head coach of the Indians' basketball team.

Added to the staff this year to replace Cecil Jackson '51 is William E. Scott '36, a four-sport star at Juniata. Scott, a member of the Huntingdon High School faculty, is serving as coach of the line. He previously was assistant coach at Huntingdon High.

Grid Rivalry Resumed

The grid rivalry between Juniata College and Lebanon Valley will be re-newed on Nov. 17 after a two-year layoff. The Dutchmen are Juniata's oldest opponents.

Juniata At Allegheny

When Juniata traveled to Meadville Oct. 13 to meet Allegheny, it was the first meeting between the colleges since 1936.

Swarthmore Faced

Juniata College faced Swarthmore on the gridiron for the first time in the history of either college on Oct. 6 at Swarthmore, Pa.

Smaltz in 5th Year

Bill Smaltz, former Penn State passing wizard, is in his fifth season as head coach of Juniata's football team.

JUNIATA GET-TOGETHER

After Haverford Game

Saturday, October 20

HERE'S your chance to meet and eat with old friends and new at a Juniata dinner at "The Viking" in Ardmore following the Juniata-Haverford football game on Saturday, Oct. 20. Interested alumni should direct inquiries to the Alumni Office. Cost of the dinner will be moderate.

JOE THOMASBERGER
Senior Tackle

Grid Parson

"PREACHER JOE" Thomasberger is starting at tackle for Juniata College this season!

And Joe will command respect not only for his ministerial aspirations but also because he's 6-2 and 205 pounds of football dynamite. To top it off, he is the only senior member of the Indians this year.

Joe became interested in the ministry while attending college after starting out as a sociology major. In July he was granted a license to preach in the Baptist Church in his home town of Johnstown, Pa.

Thomasberger is a three-year letterman in football and vice-president of Student Senate.

Three Year Lettermen

Joe Thomasberger, big tackle from Johnstown, and Dick Young, blocking back from Aliquippa, are the only three-time letter winners on the Indians' 1951 football squad.

Error on Secretary

An error was made in the Summer issue of the Alumni Bulletin which incorrectly listed Bill Oles '41 as the secretary-treasurer of the Kishacoquillas Alumni Association. Joanne Bell '49 was elected to this position. The alumni office regrets this error.

Hurt In Korea

AFTER one year of battle in the Korean War, the first Juniata College alumnus to see action was injured and forced to leave the fighting front because of "an accidental explosion."

Lt. Ralph D. Harrity '47, Lykens, Pa., informed the college of his injury in a letter to Alumni Secretary Harold B. Brumbaugh.

The artillery officer thanked Brumbaugh for the papers "describing the 75th anniversary" which arrived the morning he was evacuated to a medical clearing station "suffering from first and second degree burns on the face—the result of an accidental explosion." No further details were given.

Lt. Harrity returned to the United States in August.

PERSONALS

1887

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth (Hanawalt) Rhodes died on May 25, 1951. Born January 4, 1868, she was the daughter of John S. and Nancy (Snowberger) Hanawalt of McVeytown. She married Henry Rhodes in 1895, and they lived in North Dakota, Oregon, and finally in Brant, Alberta, Canada. Two sons, John H. and Ira C., of Brant, survive.

1901

Word has been received in the Alumni office that Joseph A. Gearhart passed away on February 8, 1951.

1902

William Witherow of Wayne, Pa., is vice president of the Delaware County Trust Company in Chester, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman V. Morse were honored by the First Church of the Brethren in Altoona on July 26, 1951, at a reception held at the Juniata Civic Auditorium. More than 150 persons were present to recognize the 45 years of continuous service to the Church. The occasion for the recognition was their leaving Altoona to reside in Elgin, Ill., at 173 N. Worth Avenue where they will be located near their son, Dr. Kenneth I. Morse, '34.

1911

Quoting from the "Spectator" (edited by Will Judy): "Across the table we shook hands—Wm. Price Harley (70) and ourselves (60)—'I'll be here ten years from now if you'll be here,' he said to us. 'It's a bargain for 1961,' we replied. Our class of '11 was having its reunion in Huntingdon, Pa. . . . Strangely we felt no desire to change places—such is the subtle siren of old age. At 20 we felt disdain for the man of 40, pity for the man of 60. Now at 60, we have charitable pity for the youth of 20—in fact, some disdain."

1929

For the past year, Dr. Glenn W. Rieman, 1204 Allegheny St., Hollidaysburg, Pa., has been chief clinical psychologist at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Altoona, Pa. Dr. Rieman received his Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Pittsburgh in

Dr. Joliat is being sent to Europe for six months' study and research by the University of Toronto where the Joliats have both been teaching in the French Department during the past five years. The Joliats will live in the home of a jewelry manufacturer, a former classmate, along the Seine River near the Bibliothèque Nationale. Pauline received her M.A. degree from Columbia University, her professor's diploma from the University of Paris, and has her residence work complete for her doctorate at Columbia University.

New Plan for Class Reunions

JUNIATA has adopted a new system, or time schedule, for class reunions in case you haven't heard. It's known as the Dartmouth Plan and is becoming very popular.

Beginning with Alumni Day at next year's Commencement week-end (1952), class reunions will follow the new plan which replaces the traditional and now discarded "every-five-year" or quinquennial plan.

Meet In Combine

Under the new system, reunions will be arranged to permit classes to reunite two out of three times with two other classes which were graduated in the same "college cycle." Your 5th, 15th, 20th, 30th, 35th, etc. will be with two other classes which were graduated either the year before or the year after your class.

That's a combine of three classes in reunion. Remember that word: combine. You will be hearing more about your reunion combine.

Or Sometimes Alone

The arrangement also gives the class the chance to hold its major reunions — 10th, 25th, 40th, etc. — alone. Your class will not be in a combine for those particular reunion years.

Now here's the schedule for next Alumni Day in 1952:

Combine Reunions:

1906-07-08
1931-32-33

Single Reunions:

1887	1912
1892	1927
1897	1942
1902	1947
1951
